Remarks

You deserve more than to settle for cookie-cutter or someone else's idea of good enough. This premier homesite unearths endless opportunities to break ground on your forever home. Situated in Palm View, this vacant property of 0.22 acres grants a desirable lifestyle with proximity to the Gulf and Indian Mound Park. This property is a quick trek to the beach downtown where you can experience all the events on Dearborn and explore the shops and stores on the weekends. The way of life that so many dream about is easily yours to design, style and mold to fit your every need. Keep some of the mature trees on the property and build your dream home in the center, taking advantage of storybook views and capturing the privacy and shade they provide. Or clear the lot completely and make way for a two-story home that reflects what you love most about the Gulf Coast, with spacious wraparound porches and plenty of outdoor entertaining. Create a parking pad just for your boat that you can take to the water any time you please to live the coastal lifestyle. Whatever your dream home and lifestyle is, this perfectly located homesite provides
